

Further media consolidation is bad. We need more voices, not less. We need more opinions, not less. Let's keep it interesting. Let's not let big companies take away in a free market sense, what we fought for in a democratic sense. Free speech is about the people being heard, not just a few big companies.